

Texas Homeless Network presents

The Face the Homeless Film Festival

When: September 2, 8:30am - 5pm

Where: Alamo Drafthouse Ritz

320 E 6th Street
Austin, TX 78701

Featuring the Texas premier of:

Kicking It

OFFICIAL SELECTION 2008 SUNDANCE FILM FESTIVAL

*Join Texas Homeless Network for a full day of movies for, about,
and by homeless persons.*

The feature presentation, Kicking It, is a story about the lives of homeless people that are changed forever through an international soccer competition.

This film follows six players as they set off for

Cape Town, South Africa to play in the Homeless World Cup.

After the screening, local Austin street soccer players will be available for Q&A.

The rest of the day includes:

- * A documentary about domestic violence, Shelter, followed by a Q&A with the director, Anne Lewis;
 - * A compilation of three short documentaries made by homeless youth in California, Hidden Hollywood: At-Risk Youth Explore the Geography of Disconnection;
 - * A documentary about homeless, school-aged children in rural areas from all over the country, followed by a Q&A with the director and conference keynote speaker, Diane Nilan;
- As well as several other selected classics of cinematic homelessness!

Please register below and fax or send in your registration by August 28th (if possible!).

Will you be attending the full event or just the feature presentation?

Full Event - $75 (includes lunch and snacks) 8:30 am - 5pm

Feature Presentation - $25 (includes snack) 3pm - 5pm

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

Address: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Please fax to 512-478-9077 or send check and registration to FtH Film Festival 1713 Fortview Rd. Austin, TX 78704. Call Ryla with any question at 512-687-5103. Discounts for large groups available. Register now!