SUPPORT
Help keep the Festival free by making a donation at texasbookfestival.org/donate. TBF also works throughout the year to foster literacy and literary culture in Texas through our library, school, and community programs: Library Grants, Reading Rock Stars, and Read Reads. Support our mission!

SPECIAL THANKS
The Texas Book Festival at the State Capitol would not be possible without the state representatives who annually support our event. We thank House Representative Mary Ann Perez for being the 2023 Texas Book Festival legislative sponsor.

The State Capitol of Texas is located at 1000 Congress Ave., Austin, Texas 78701. It was completed in 1888 and is the seat of the government of the State of Texas. The building is rectangular in shape and has four floors. The dome of the building is made of copper. The cornerstone was laid in 1881 and construction was completed in 1888. The State Capitol is one of the largest capitols in the United States and is the second largest public building in Texas.

Elizabeth Crook is the author of six novels including The Which Way Tree, The Night Journal — which received the Spur Award from Western Writers of America — and Monday, Monday, winner of the Jesse H. Jones Award from the Texas Institute of Letters. Crook’s latest novel, The Madstone, will be published by Little, Brown and Company on November 7, 2023.
