PRESENTED BY

FESTIVAL HOURS

Saturday, November 11, 11 AM – 5 PM Sunday, November 12, 10 AM – 5 PM

LOCATION

In Downtown Austin, in the Texas State Capitol and along Congress Avenue and 11th Street (see Festival Event map in schedule pullout).

The Texas Book Festival is proudly presented by

TBF thanks H-E-B for enriching communities across Texas through their support of literacy and education.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Texas Book Festival is committed to providing a safe environment at our events for all attendees and participants, free of harassment, discrimination, and threatening or disrespectful behavior.

We do not tolerate harassment in any form and reserve the right to remove from any Texas Book Festival event those who engage in harassing behavior including but not limited to unwanted advances, stalking, verbal threats, inappropriate statements or gestures, sustained disruption of speakers, and disrespectful comments that go beyond the boundaries of civil disagreement and civic discourse. The Texas Book Festival welcomes attendees and participants of all genders, gender identities and expressions, sexual orientations, ages, abilities, physical appearances, body sizes, races, and religions. We are dedicated to creating safe and accepting environments for people to engage with literature and ideas.

PARKING

Free parking is avalable in State Lot parking garages on San Jacinto between 13th and 15th Streets (see TBF website for Festival parking map). Accessible parking is available at the Capitol Visitors Parking Garage at 1201 San Jacinto Blvd. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Texas Book Festival prior to your visit at 512-477-4055 or bookfest@texasbookfestival.org.

SESSIONS

Most sessions are free and open to the public on a first-come, first-served basis. Select sessions require a ticket to attend - visit texasbookfestival.org for more information. Festival Friends Pass holders receive priority session and signing line access for Friends Pass-designated sessions. Venues will be cleared between sessions.

FESTIVAL BOOK SALES

You can support Texas Book Festival and its authors by purchasing books at the BookPeople sales tents and at select off-site venues.

BOOK SIGNINGS

Most authors will sign books immediately after their sessions. Signings take place in the Book Signing Tents and at select offsite program venues. Check the signing schedule on the Main Signing Tent and Children's Signing Tent for signing times.

BOOK SIGNINGS POLICY

To be signed, books must be purchased from one of the Festival's Book Sales Tents or from BookPeople at select offsite venues. We cannot guarantee that authors will sign any pre-owned books. Book dealers are not allowed to bring books into the Book Signing Tents. Dealers with rolling carts and/or wagons are not allowed on the Festival grounds.

INFORMATION AND FIRST AID CENTERS

General information, Lost & Found, and directional assistance will be available at the Information Tent (11th St. at Colorado St.). First aid is available at the Medical Tent located at 11th St. at Colorado St.

ENJOY THE TEXAS BOOK FESTIVAL AND SMILE

Attendees give the Texas Book Festival or its designee permission to use their voice, image, or likeness as it appears, in any photographic or audio recording in all media in perpetuity.

ACCESSIBILITY

ASL interpretation is available at select sessions as indicated in the program.

ASL

Accessible parking is available at the Capitol Visitors Parking Garage at 1201 San Jacinto Blvd. and accessibility seating will be saved in venues for up to 15 minutes prior to the session start. If you require special accommodations, please contact the Texas Book Festival prior to your visit at 512-477-4055 or bookfest@texasbookfestival.org.

CAPITOL RULES

The Texas Book Festival's presence in the Capitol is a privilege. Please respect and follow all Capitol rules.

SUPPORT

Help keep the Festival free by making a donation at texasbookfestival.org/donate. TBF also works throughout the year to foster literacy and literary culture in Texas through our library, school, and community programs: Library Grants, Reading Rock Stars, and Read Reads. Support our mission!

SPECIAL THANKS

The Texas Book Festival at the State Capitol would not be possible without the state representatives who annually support our event. We thank House Representative Mary Ann Perez for being the 2023 Texas Book Festival legislative sponsor.

TEXAS BOOK FESTIVAL HONORS

2023 POSTER ARTIST

The art for this year's TBF poster, titled Cowboy Reading in Big Bend, was selected as the 2023 Festival Poster image. Born in Wichita, Kansas in 1962, Flaming moved to Texas in 1967. The artist grew up in Dallas/Richardson. His fine art is in the permanent collections of the Tyler Museum of Art, The Grace Museum in Abilene, The Museum of the Southwest, and the San Angelo Museum of Fine Art.

His work is also in many private and public collections and has been exhibited in numerous solo and group shows. Jon lives with his wife, Kathy, in Richardson. They have three married children and four grandchildren.

Please visit texasbookfestival.org/get-to-know-our-2023-festival-poster-artist-jon-flaming for a full interview with Flaming.

TEXAS WRITER AWARD

Since 1999, the Texas Writer Award has been given annually to an individual for outstanding contributions to Texas letters, education, and literary arts, and culture. TBF is honored to present this year's award to Elizabeth Crook: acclaimed novelist and oft-featured author at the Texas Book Festival.

Elizabeth Crook is the author of six novels including The Which Way Tree, The Night Journal — which received the Spur Award from Western Writers of America — and Monday, Monday, winner of the Jesse H. Jones Award from the Texas Institute of Letters. Crook's latest novel, The Madstone, will be published by Little, Brown and Company on November 7, 2023.

The 2023 Texas Writer Award will be presented to Crook in the Capitol Auditorium on Saturday, November 11, at 12:15 PM.

Please visit texasbookfestival.org/2023-texas-writer-award-recipient-elizabeth-crook for a full interview with Crook.

JAN HUGHES VOLUNTEER AWARD

We are pleased to recognize School Outreach Volunteer Chair Minnie Hollyman for her 7 years of invaluable service to the Festival. Whether she's organizing student introducers for the Festival, driving authors around for Reading Rock Stars, or serving on our Board of Advisors, Minnie is never more than a phone call away. This award is given in honor of Jan Hughes, Texas Book Festival's former Board Chair and longtime volunteer.

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

RACHEL RENÉE RUSSELL & NIKKI RUSSELL

Saturday at 12:45 p.m. at Central Presbyterian Church

Rachel Renée Russell is the author of the #1 New York Times bestselling book series Dork Diaries, which has sold more than 45 million copies worldwide. She will present the latest in the series, Dork Diaries 15, at TBF.

JACQUELINE WOODSON

Saturday at 3:30 p.m. First Baptist Church

Jacqueline Woodson is a New York Times bestselling author and has received a Guggenheim Foundation Fellowship and a MacArthur Fellowship, among many other awards. She was the 2018-2019 National Ambassador for Young People's Literature. She will present her latest middle-grade novel, Remember Us. at TBF.

ANGIE THOMAS

Saturday at 3:30 p.m. First Baptist Church

Angie Thomas is a New York Times bestselling author, as well as a producer, activist, and former teen rapper. She will talk about her middle-grade debut, Nic Blake & The Remarkables, at TBF this year.

For more not-to-be-missed programs for children, please check out the grid schedule for what is going on in the Read Me A Story, Next Chapter, Leamos, and the Children's Activity Tents.

TEEN PROGRAMMING

ALI HAZELWOOD Sunday at 4:15 p.m.

First United Methodist Church

Ali Hazelwood is a New York Times bestselling author, neuroscientist, and professor. She will be talking about her new book, Check & Mate, at this year's Texas Book Festival.

This year TBF is pleased to announce the launch of Camp TTBF: an activity tent and hangout space for teens. For details on programs in Camp TTBF, see the grid schedule.

For more amazing programs for teens, please check out the grid schedule for what is happening in TBF's YA HQ Tent, sponsored by Amplify Credit Union.

SPANISH PROGRAMMING

In its commitment to expanding programming for its Spanish-speaking audiences, TBF is excited to launch a slate of programming fully in Spanish at the 2023 Festival. These panels will take place in Texas Book Festival's newly rebranded tent dedicated to Latine, Hispanic and Spanish language programming: Leamos: Hispanic and Latine Writers & Literature in Spanish. In addition to the programs listed below, which are fully in Spanish, TBF continues to feature bilingual story time sessions, also in Leamos.

SPANISH PROGRAMMING ON SATURDAY

4:15-5:00 Amistad, Feminidad y Tragedia: Historias de Mujeres Chingonas con Esmeralda Santiago & Rosa Beltrán

SPANISH PROGRAMMING ON SUNDAY

SPECIAL VETERANS' DAY PROGRAMMING

In recognition of Veterans' Day, TBF is proud to showcase sessions that feature books written by veterans and about military history on 11/11/23:

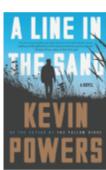

George Black

V Is For Victory Craig Nelson

A Line In The Sand Kevin Powers

Above The Trenches Nathan Hale

Additionally, the Veterans Suicide Prevention Network will have an exhibitor booth at the Festival this year to promote their important work.

NEW FESTIVAL VENUE

The Texas State Library and Archives Commission, a longtime Texas Book Festival community partner, is thrilled to serve as a venue and be open to the public throughout this year's Festival. The Texas Center for the Book will welcome attendees to the Lorenzo de Zavala State Archives and Library Building, where visitors can learn about the Center's annual statewide reading and literacy programs; view the current lobby exhibit, Beyond the Badge: The Work and Records of the Texas Rangers; record an oral history interview; talk with librarians, archivists, and staff; tour the State Archives; and more!

Special, behind-the-scenes tours of the archives' closed stacks will take place on Saturday 11/11 and Sunday 11/12 at 12:00, 1:00, 2:00, 3:00, and 4:00 p.m. and are limited to 15 people on a first-come, first-served basis.

Since 1909, when the state founded the agency, TSLAC has supported the reading, learning, and historical preservation needs of Texas and its people. Explore the TSLAC website at www.tsl.texas. gov and discover our online exhibits, family history research resources, Texas Center for the Book initiatives, and ongoing programs and events.

LIT CRAWL! SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11

Join us on the East Side for the thirteenth annual Lit Crawl Austin, a night of performances, games, trivia matches, and storytelling sessions. All events are free and for ages 21 and up. Venues include Saddle Up, Vintage Bookstore & Wine Bar, Daydreamer, and Ginbar!

Want to make your Crawl great? Follow these tips:

Wear comfortable shoes. You'll be walking around and some venues are standing-room only.

Support our venues! Purchase a beverage and tip your bartenders!

Parking is limited, so walk, bike, nab a scooter, rideshare, or carpool. Travel safe!

Help keep Lit Crawl free for everyone. Volunteers will be accepting donations at the door.
